

Lyminster Primary school
Volunteer's Policy, Application and Agreements

Introduction

This document defines the role and sets out the principles, practices and procedures of the appointment, management and supervision of volunteers, as well as outlining clear guidelines on the expected conduct of volunteers. It contains lots of information and the forms at the back provide you with an opportunity to state how you would like to volunteer, your contact details and what times you are available.

A volunteer is defined as someone who, unpaid and of their own free will, contributes their time, energy and skills to benefit others. Volunteers are an important part of Lyminster school life, making a significant contribution to the school, bringing a range of skills and experiences which can enhance learning opportunities for all our children. Therefore, the school staff and governing body welcomes volunteers and we value and respect their contribution.

Our volunteers include;

- Members of the Governing Body
- Parents of pupils
- Students on work experience
- University students
- Ex members of staff
- Local residents

Activities undertaken by volunteers;

- Hearing pupils read
- Working with small groups of pupils to assist them in their learning
- Working alongside individual pupils
- Accompanying school visits
- Helping with creating resources or putting up displays
- Gardening in the spring and summer months
- Becoming a member of Parents at Lyminster and help to organise school events

Our Commitment to You

As one of our valued volunteers, we are committed to giving you the following:

- a friendly and supportive working environment;
- enthusiastic and cooperative children;
- a mentor and link staff member (also referred to as the designated supervisor) to support you in your volunteering (usually the class teacher);
- recognition for the work that you do and its impact on learning;
- a reference if you apply for paid work here or elsewhere.

Becoming a volunteer

If you are reading this pack you have already expressed an interest in becoming a volunteer at Lyminster. If you know how and in which year group(s) you wish to volunteer, you can start the process by completing the Volunteer Application Form. If you are unsure what you want to do, perhaps the best way to start is to speak to a member of staff to find out what volunteering opportunities are available, and what year groups would suit you best before completing the forms.

For those volunteers who wish to work on a regular basis we require; completion of the Application and Agreement Forms (part of this document) a Disclosure and Barring Service check (DBS, formally called a CRB) and two references. You may not start volunteering until the DBS check is complete and we have been shown your original DBS certificate and we have received satisfactory references.

The DBS Check is a straightforward process which requires you to provide three forms of identification and proof of current address and usually takes a few days for the check to be complete. If you would like to become a regular volunteer please complete the volunteer agreement and make an appointment with the School Business Manager to start the DBS process.

Safeguarding/child protection

Our school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, and expects all its staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Any concerns that volunteers have about the pupils they work with/come into contact with should be voiced with the designated supervisor and NEVER with the parents of the child/persons concerned.

The welfare of our pupils is paramount. To ensure the safety of our pupils, we adopt the following procedures:

- All volunteers must sign in and out of the premises using the school signing in procedure. You must wear a lanyard identifying you as a Visitor.
- All volunteers are given a copy of the Volunteer Policy and asked to sign a Volunteer Agreement and, if volunteering in school and Acceptable Use Agreement
- All volunteers will be given a verbal induction to complement this volunteers' pack.
- With the exception of volunteering for 'one-off' activities, all of our volunteers must have been cleared by the DBS. The DBS remains 'active' as long as stay with us, provided there is not a break in service of three months.
- Volunteers will be under the constant supervision of school staff and must read and sign our Off-Site Visit Agreement if they want to help with school trips.
- For off-site visits, the trip leader will brief all volunteers before the trip starts and share the risk assessment with volunteers.
- Any concerns a volunteer has, about child protection issues, should be referred to the link staff member or Head Teacher.

Child Protection

- It is possible that children may tell you (or try to tell you) things which may be a cause of concern, or they may even relay information relating to some form of abuse. If this happens, do not question the child; please inform one of the safeguarding officers immediately. While you cannot promise confidentiality within school (i.e. you must make it clear to the child that you'll have to tell someone), you must ensure that once you have passed the matter on you do not discuss it with anyone else. The school's designated safeguarding officers are the Head Teacher and Inclusion Manager.

- If you are at all unsure of what to do in this situation, speak to the Safeguarding Officers.
- If you are in any doubt about the safety of a child, immediately tell the Safeguarding Officers.
- If you have a concern about a member of staff, please speak to either the Headteacher or Chair of Governors. Alternatively, the LADO (Local Authority Designated Officer) may be contacted.

Safe Practice

To protect the children you are helping and yourself from any false accusation, follow these simple steps:

- only work in public areas such as classrooms and corridors;
- try to work close to where other volunteers or staff members are working;
- avoid any physical contact with the children;
- try to ensure that your conversation with children is friendly but not over-familiar; never accompany children into the toilets.
- Do not take any digital images of children or staff using your own equipment
- Do not use your mobile device while working with children.

Supervision

All volunteers work under the supervision of a teacher or full time member of staff. Teachers retain ultimate responsibility for pupils at all times, including the pupils' behaviour and the activity they are undertaking.

Volunteers should have clear guidance from the designated supervisor as to how an activity is carried out/what the expected outcome of an activity is. In the event of any query/problem regarding the pupil's understanding of a task, behaviour or their welfare, volunteers must seek further advice/guidance from their designated supervisor.

Conduct

At Lyminster we expect all staff and volunteers to conform to high standards of behaviour and conduct whilst carrying out their duties. We expect that volunteers will:

- Respect other volunteers, students, staff, children and parents
- Make children feel welcome and valued
- Be approachable and sensitive to others
- Work under the professional direction of staff - following guidance given
- Maintain confidentiality at all times

Like staff, volunteers should recognise that they are role models to the children; their demeanour and choice of dress should uphold the school's expectations for the children

All volunteers should be aware of how their behaviour can affect both colleagues and children; everyone has the responsibility to avoid becoming involved in situations that could bring the school into disrepute.

Working with Children

Whether you have previous experience of working with children or not, here are some guidelines to help you be successful in your voluntary work.

- Children may be a little nervous when working with you for the first time. Introduce yourself using your formal title (e.g. Mrs Smith) and explain that you will be helping them with their reading/spelling etc.
- Remember that although we need to be friendly, we are not making friendships, and it is important that the children give you the same amount of respect as other adults in the school. Expect children to use your 'grown up' name, e.g. Mrs Smith.
- Our children are usually enthusiastic and cooperative. You are not responsible for managing their behaviour beyond making a reasonable attempt to help the child focus on their task. Be positive and clear in your explanations, and remember you are not there to negotiate about what the children have to do.
- If a child is not engaging at all with their task, remind them of the purpose of the activity and that you are there to help them.
- If your reasonable attempts to help the child engage with their task are not working, use a final reminder, e.g. 'If you can't settle down you will have to see your teacher.'
- Please don't get into arguments with the children or attempt to discipline them. If you have any concerns at all, ask for help from a member of staff immediately.

Remember that the children are always watching – it's good to let them see you interacting respectfully and cooperatively with other adults in the school.

For more information, you can read the school's Behaviour Policy. If you are apprehensive about this area, the best advice is to watch your mentor or other adults working with children, even for the first few weeks. If it just isn't working with a particular child or group, please do not hesitate to let someone know.

Confidentiality

The information we hold about you and your volunteering is confidential, and as such, will not be shared with any third parties without your express consent.

Volunteers in school are bound by a code of confidentiality. We ask that you respect the confidentiality of staff and pupils at Lyminster by not discussing things you have seen and heard while volunteering, especially when sensitive information about pupils is involved. We have a Confidentiality Policy which you can read, if you require more information.

Again, any concerns that volunteers have about the pupils they work with/come into contact with should be voiced with the designated supervisor and NEVER with the parents of the child/persons.

Health and Safety

Like all adults on the premises, you must comply with the school's Health and Safety Policy (available on request), observing any specific requirements whilst volunteering. Volunteers need to exercise due care and attention and report any obvious hazards or concerns to the designated Supervisor, School Business Manager or Headteacher.

You will be given a tour of the school as part of your induction and fire safety information will be shared at that point. Volunteers must familiarise themselves with the fire evacuation procedures in the area in which they are working as these differ in each class/room. All rooms have the procedure on display by the 'rear' doors. In all cases the muster point is the playground. As a volunteer you are not responsible for the children; please allow the school staff to direct the children to safety.

Do not take part in, or ask anyone else to take part in, any action that might cause you or another person to be put at risk of injury or harm. In particular, do not work at height, do not lift, carry or move anything heavy and visually check the plug and wires of any electrical equipment to ensure they appear sound and have a PAT test sticker present (all portable electrical equipment is tested annually). If you wish to have a hot drink outside of the Staff Room, this must be in a sealed lidded cup.

If you are involved in an accident whilst volunteering at school please seek first aid if required (a list of qualified First Aiders is available in all classrooms), and ensure you report the incident to your link staff member or the School Business Manager.

Equal Opportunities

At our school we do not tolerate discrimination on any grounds. As a volunteer you must treat people with respect at all times and ensure that there is no unlawful discrimination, abuse, harassment or bullying in your dealing with children, colleagues or others at the school. If you feel that you have been unfairly discriminated against please discuss this with your link staff member or the Head Teacher. Our equal opportunities policy is available from the office.

Volunteer induction

Before you can begin volunteering at the school you will have an induction. This process will enable you to become more familiar with the organisation of the school, some of its practices and procedures and give you the opportunity to ask any questions you may have. The induction will involve the following:

- A tour of the school
- A brief Introduction of health and safety at school
- Identification of emergency procedures
- Identification of supervisor
- Opportunity for questions

Insurance

As long as you follow the guidelines in this booklet and in the relevant policies you will be covered by the school's insurance for most occurrences.

Frequently asked questions

Where can I leave my belongings?

It's not a good idea to bring too many personal belongings and valuables to school with you. However, your link staff member will let you know where you can leave your coat and bag, etc.

Can I volunteer in my child's class?

While we do not wish to discourage any volunteers, it would be preferable for our volunteers not to work on a regular basis in the same class as their child. This is because this can have negative unforeseen implications.

What shall I wear?

Wear something comfortable which will allow freedom of movement, particularly if you want to volunteer in the younger year groups. Jeans are not permitted in any West Sussex school (unless we are having a non-uniform day) and clothing must not be too low - or high cut.

Where can I go?

Most of the time, you will be working in a specific classroom or shared spaces. If you need to visit other classrooms (for example, to collect children for reading), please be as discreet as possible while lessons are taking place. At break times we want you to feel relaxed and comfortable and therefore you are welcome to use the staff room for somewhere to sit. There are tea and coffee making facilities, and cold filtered water is available for you to help yourself to a drink. If you wish to take a drink out of the staff room, you may do so, but you must use a cup with a secured lid. You may prefer to use the playground to get a breath of fresh air, or alternatively you could sit quietly in the classroom where you have been based. There are toilets by the staff room and upstairs which you are welcome to use, but please do not use the children's toilets.

What if I cannot make it today or I want to stop volunteering?

If you will not be coming in on your 'usual day' it would be great if you could call the school office on 713642 to let us know. If for any reason you want or need to stop volunteering at Lyminster we ask that you could let us know.

Complaints procedure

Whilst we hope that volunteers will be happy, we do realise that problems do sometimes arise. We believe that volunteers have the right to make a complaint about anything that causes them concern during the course of their volunteering.

If the volunteer has a complaint they should report it to the School Business Manager or Headteacher who will investigate the complaint in accordance with the school's complaints procedure.

We also understand that the behaviour of a volunteer may sometimes cause problems for the school, in such cases, complaints will be referred to the Headteacher or appropriate senior member of staff, for investigation.

The Headteacher or designated member of staff reserves the right to take the following action -

- To speak with a volunteer about a breach of the Volunteer Agreement and seek reassurance that this will not happen again
- Offer an alternative placement for a volunteer, e.g. helping with another activity or in another class.
- Based upon the facts identified in the investigation it may be necessary to inform the volunteer that the school no longer feels it is appropriate for them to continue volunteering at Lyminster.

A copy of the school's full Complaints Procedure is available upon request.

- Volunteer helpers are not allowed to give/buy their group treats e.g. ice creams, biscuits, sweets – before, during or after the school trip.
- Volunteer helpers are expected to maintain the strictest levels of confidentiality at all times, ensuring that no information gleaned is shared outside of the school.

Child Protection

- It is possible that children may tell you (or try to tell you) things which may be a cause of concern, or they may even relay information relating to some form of abuse. If this happens, do not question the child; please inform one of the safeguarding officers immediately. While you cannot promise confidentiality within school (i.e. you must make it clear to the child that you'll have to tell someone), you must ensure that once you have passed the matter on you do not discuss it with anyone else. The school's designated safeguarding officers are the Head Teacher and Inclusion Manager.
- If you are at all unsure of what to do in this situation, speak to the Safeguarding Officers.
- If you are in any doubt about the safety of a child, immediately tell the Safeguarding Officers.
- If you have a concern about a member of staff, please speak to either the Headteacher or Chair of Governors. Alternatively, the LADO (Local Authority Designated Officer) may be contacted.

First Aid

You will be informed if any child in your group has medication/needs. If medicine needs to be administered, this will be done by a member of staff unless you are the Parent/ Carer of the child who requires medicine, in which case you will be asked to administer this and be responsible for carrying the medicine. All other medicines and first aid box(es) will be carried by staff.

Emergencies

If there is an emergency; a serious incident, accident, or a child is missing, inform a member of staff immediately. The staff leader will trigger the appropriate procedure so that the situation can be dealt with quickly, effectively and in accordance with School's and West Sussex protocols.

If you have become separated from the rest of the school party, please telephone one of the members of staff on your contact list or telephone the school.
